

VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION COUNSELOR/SOCIAL WORKER:

- Functioning as a team to coordinate various activities and receive feedback from other members of the team.
- Providing various types of counseling, assessment, motivation therapies to the residents making their family member aware regarding the illness. Along with that planning strategies regarding treatment from admission to follow-up.
- Conducting various session on awareness and classes on education for the residents as well as making counselors aware regarding various type of counseling techniques that is used in the respective centers.
- Document various background information of the residents.
- Conducting awareness programs in the local communities.
- Visiting government offices and networking with various Governmental and Non-governmental Organization and agencies. Counselors have to support residents in treatment, escorting and guiding them from admission to rehabilitation.

CONTINUED:

- Document various background information of the residents.
- Conducting awareness programs in the local communities.
- Visiting government offices and networking with various Governmental and Non-governmental Organization and agencies. Counselors have to support residents in treatment, escorting and guiding them from admission to rehabilitation.